Artist Spotlight

JOE FLORES

We would like to showcase a member of our Board, Joe Flores. Joe has been a past President of UCAB as well as President of the Puppetry Arts Guild. He has performed as a pantomime artist at the Timpanogos Storytelling Festival among many other events. His airbrush work has been featured in the Ensign magazine and other magazines. He is a cover artist for the book series "Nephi in Tennis Shoes". He works at Robotronics building animated sculptures and vehicles for teaching children safety awareness. He taught many airbrush classes to adults and children. His work appeared in the Urban Gallery in Salt Lake, Covey Center for the Arts and numerous other venues. He is a graduate of Brigham Young University where he studied art in many forms. We are honored to have Joe on our board.

President's Message

BY JEANNE GOMM

The Plein Air show will be up for another month. Be sure to check it out. Also the pieces from the Board members are lovely. We have a new display in the glass case by Steve Henline. If you are a fish enthusiast, you will especially love it.
